

Join us on March 8 for Women Building Oregon

Energy Trust of Oregon is proud to co-host a webinar on March 8, International Women's Day, with LatinoBuilt, National Association of Minority Contractors (NAMC) – Oregon, Oregon Solar + Storage Industries Association (OSSIA) and Oregon Tradeswomen as we hear from community leaders in the field of commercial construction.

This webinar will highlight Oregon tradeswomen's wins, struggles and visions for an equitable and sustainable future in construction. Panelists will share how and why they entered the construction field, pursued their passions and created new opportunities in their communities and for generations to come. They'll share opportunities that are available to a diverse and strong workforce, a demographic that is essential to building a resilient Oregon.

Don't miss this opportunity to celebrate the personal stories and expertise of Oregon women who are leading the way in commercial construction.

Panelists:

- Berenice Lopez-Dorsey, co-founder, LatinoBuilt
- Cinna'Mon Williams, chief operating officer, NAMC – Oregon
- Michelle Maher, program director, OSSIA
- Isis Harris, electrical journeyman, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (IBEW) Local 48; co-chair, Oregon Tradeswomen

When: Friday, March 8

Panel discussion: 4 p.m. - 5 p.m.

Register now

Reach out to Kriya Kaping, market outreach manager, Energy Trust New Buildings with questions or for more information at Kriya.kaping@clearesult.com.